

Table 3: International Experts and Officials Received at WHITRAP (Shanghai)

Date	Visitors	Content
April 2008	Ms. Clea LE CARDEUR, Program Specialist of Technique and Administrative Cooperation at the French Embassy in China	Discussion about possibilities for cooperation in Sino-French heritage conservation
May 2008	Ms. Noriko AIKAWA, a UNESCO expert on intangible heritage conservation	In-depth discussion of heritage conservation with different categories
May 2008	Mr. Amine KHENE, Executive Assistant Director-General of UNESCO	Discussion of the future development of UNESCO Category 2 institutes
September 2008	Ms. SONG Luolan, Vice Director of Microsoft Research Asia	Discussion of integration of heritage conservation and information techniques
November 2008	Ms. LEE Ji-Hyang and Ms. LEE Un-Kyung, Asia-Pacific Centre of Education for International Understanding under the auspices of UNESCO	Discussion of familiar issues faced by UNESCO Category 2 institutes
December 2008	Katmandu Office of UNESCO and delegation of Nepal Cultural Heritage Conservation	Discussion of possibilities for cooperation on multiple aspects of heritage conservation